PASSION FOR GOD

Never be lacking in zeal. Keep your spiritual  fervor, and serve the Lord with enthusiasm! (Romans 12:11)

OUT OF SIGHT... OUT OF MIND

For those beings, creatures, and people who dwell in the very presence of God, there is no lack of passion. Sight requires no faith. When we have faith strong enough to see the invisible, _____ for God will _____ our being.

1 Cor. 13:12, 11 Cor. 5:7, Heb. 11:1      weak passion < weak _____

ADULTERY WITH THE WORLD

The sights, sounds, possessions, and entertainments of this world _____ our _____... our passion. In the eyes of God, this is nothing less than spiritual adultery. The foremost, exclusive _____ of our heart... the intimate, thoughtful _____ of our life... the place of our passion. We give it to things other than God. The result is a _____ of enthusiasm, conviction, and zeal for God (and his priorities). Revelation 2:3-5, Jeremiah 2:2-13

• _____ • _____ • _____
insipid passion < insipid _____

LAZY

There is a simple way to have weeds overcome your garden. Just _____ . Plant your beans (good intentions!). Then zone out until they're ready to pick. Duh! Likewise, it is a simple matter for people (or churches) to lose their passion for God.

Simply exist in a _____ and have the simple goal of _____ . Don't care about the lost. Don't intervene in disputes. Don't teach the ignorant or encourage the timid, or confront the rebel.

Romans 12:11, John 9:4, Galatians 6:9-10

no passion < no _____
