When it comes to “giving”; all sorts of songs, sermons, and slogans have been trotted out. “The gift that keeps on giving”, “One live to give”, “Live to give”, etc. Some are profound. Some are corny. Jesus, of course, taught about giving. “Give and it will be given unto you.” And Jesus also touched on a delicate topic, that of an unacceptable gift. Perhaps you have been there. You were given a gift, but you actually felt insulted ... by the attitude or the amount or the thoughtlessness. This is awkward. Jesus described how God feels toward the gifts we offer him. Yes, sometimes God feels insulted or angry at our lackluster giving. During November, we’ll look at three parables from Jesus. MIFFED AT THE GIFT

Nov. 6 – giving TALENT

Nov. 13 – giving TREASURE

Nov. 20 – giving TIME

Operation Christmas Child Shoebox collection! You may pick up a box on the coat rack at the top of the stairs. The boxes are due NEXT SUNDAY.

Giving TALENT (Luke 13:6-9)

Some trees are planted for pollution or erosion control. Some are planted for shade, wood, or decoration. This tree was planted to give _____. While its existence may have served these other purposes, what it offered did not _____ what it did not offer. There were no figs.

IS THE OWNER'S EXPECTATION JUSTIFIED?

His _____ + His _____ = His _____

Natural Talent vs. Spiritual Gift

While some people make a great distinction between these and comb through many details seeking to separate and categorize, it is mostly important to note only two salient facts.

1. _____ you _____ is given _____ you _____ God

2. _____ you _____ is given _____ you to be _____

(Rom. 12:6, 1 Cor. 12:7, Eph. 4:12, 1 Peter 4:10, Matt. 13:23)

*The Lord put the fig tree in the soil and supplied sunshine and water. But he did not put _____ on the _____. He _____ the _____ to do that!

Types of Talents (Aptitude, Interest, Training)

_____ - motivating/inspiring people toward ideas and programs

_____ - conceiving ideas

_____ - converting ideas into possibilities/programs

_____ - making programs work

_____ - seeing people rather than ideas/programs

The NT lists giving (money) and serving as God given gifts (Rom. 12:7). Some are given these abilities to a unique degree.*

However, every Christian (to some degree) should give and serve.

Would God (who gave me talents) be insulted by how scarcely I use them for his service or kingdom?
