HOW CAN I RESIST THE INEVITABLE?

(I Kings 20)

- * Aggression of Syria – “We didn’t get all we want, so we’ll _____ next spring.”
- * Compromise of Israel – “We’re tired of your campaigns, so we’ll _____ your ideas”
- * Verdict of God – “Accommodation precedes agreement; _____ implies _____

The fact that an ungodly idea or practice often begins with an individual or small group but quickly picks up cultural steam until it hits us _____ and from _____ should not surprise the Christian. (I Cor. 5:6, II Tim. 2:16-17, Titus 1:15-16, I Peter 4:4, II Peter 2:1-3, 3:3)

Evil, in _____, is rebellion against God ... authority, expectations, plans, commands

Evil, in _____, is never content to operate alone ... bullies, tempts, intimidates, demands

Evil, in _____, is deceptively prestigious ... insistent, incessant, influential, inevitable

When any culture considers the _____ and _____ of God no longer “worthwhile”, they have reached a tipping point. God will abandon them to the natural consequences of sin. _____ will become acceptable and inevitable. _____ to right and wrong will disappear. _____ will change to accommodate a “continual lust for more.” _____ will go from bad to bizarre. (Rom. 1:28-32, Eph. 4:17-19)

NOW WHAT?

- As culture turns to sand, _____ the beach! Build your house on a rock. (Mt. 7:24-27)
- In your desire to love people and witness of God’s saving power, be careful that _____ does not become _____. Sometimes the dead must bury their own dead. (Jude 22-23)
- Even when a new low is inevitable for a depraved culture, _____ are _____ a culture. You are an individual and can _____ to burn rather than bow. (Rom. 12:2, Phil. 2:15)
