QUESTIONS? - Contact Josh Lance

WHAT ARE YOU DOING HERE? (I Kings 19)

Running away (physically) to escape _____ is acceptable to God. Running away (mentally) to escape _____ is unacceptable to God. (Jeremiah 1:4-10) (Ezekiel 2:1 - 3:11)

The purpose of each person's life may be to do a _____ thing, but the purpose of every person's life is to do _____ thing! (Eph. 2:10)

- * God _____ to let Elijah sleep (indefinitely), because he knew that this sleep was a symptom of _____, an avenue of _____
- * What gives God the right to be so demanding? _____ ... _____ and _____
- * How does God "ask" me to do difficult things? _____ ... _____ and _____

TWO PART QUESTION

a) Doing? I should be keenly aware that God's gift of life must include something _____ being alive, being entertained, or feeling "pleasure"

* Accomplish manage, produce, perform ... God's words _____ man!

b) Here? I must also be aware that God sometimes has _____ places or assignments for individuals. _____ I am "doing", I should _____ be "listening". His _____ work for me may be a different type or location.

* _____ is even more important to God than _____.

Elijah had accomplished astounding demonstrations for God, yet was still opposed by Jezebel and currently under death threat. Depressed, he wished to quit. BUT God's _____ (15-17) would do _____ to _____ his _____ (freeing Israel from Ahab/Jezebel/Baal) than everything he had previously done! If he quit when he felt like it, his previous work would have been wasted! Ironically, he did not live to see his greatest victory, but it was set in motion _____ his meltdown in Beersheba. (I Kings 9-10)

"Gentle Whisper"

God may get our attention in spectacular ways, but his direction/motivation is known in the secrecy of our heart. Elijah was no _____ than us (James 5:17). In fear and fatigue, he wanted to _____. But God wasn't interested in allowing it. Gently but persistently, God pulls us toward _____ and _____.
