WHERE IS YOUR WIFE?

(Genesis 18)

Abram was _____ (requiring Sarai to shoulder the burden of leadership)

So the Lord asked Abram a question which highlighted his need to take his responsibility as husband more _____. He was a good provider (Gen. 13:2), but there was more at stake.

LEADERSHIP

_____ (making best _____ toward the _____)
_____ (_____ issues/circumstances which would harm his family)
_____ (setting _____ or doing _____ with destructive influences)
_____ (taking initiative to get _____ on _____ when problems do occur)

RELATIONSHIP

Leadership is not about shouting demands or shooting memos from where you hide in splendid seclusion. It is the work of _____ a depth of knowledge and fellowship which enables a _____ to function well. In marriage, this means _____ and _____. (I Peter 3:7)

- R_____ - acceptance of the individual, regard for their dreams and ideas; showing honor
- E_____ - attempting to see things through their eyes, connecting with their emotions
- L_____ - willingness to sacrifice for their good; desiring their presence and perspective
- A_____ - discipline of looking/listening to them; noticing and assisting with needs
- T_____ - vulnerability to them, believing in their integrity toward you; submission
- E_____ - putting your shoulder under their load; inspiring them to see good possibilities

This question from God to Abram stresses the _____ and _____ of marriage. A marriage may be relaxed, joyful, and spontaneous yet it is still a serious obligation in God's eyes. _____, _____, and _____ are necessary. Without these, well-meaning individuals drift apart and no longer know "where" their partner is.
