MERRY CHRISTMAS

December 25, 2016

For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first BORN among many brothers. (Romans 8:29)

*Christ is born among men.
Has Christ been born within me?*

THIS WEEK

NEXT WEEK

1st Nursery	The Clopper Family	Teai Mills
2nd Nursery	No service
Acolyte	Carlee Knepper
Greeters	Bob & Fran Stoner	Sean & Tara Tracey & Family
Prelude	Josh Lance

NEXT SUNDAY: Once again, a combined (9:00) WORSHIP service only on New Year's Day. We will celebrate HOLY COMMUNION as part of our time together. No SS classes.

Many thanks to Tracey Family (Tracey's Orchard) for donating the apple cider during Heritage Christmas. We also appreciate all who donated cookies and time as we served the visitors on the square.

Jan 10 - Bowling and lunch. Meet at Nellie Fox Bowling at 10:00 a.m. Cost: $2/game includes shoes. Lunch at the Stoners afterwards. RSVP by 12/9 to Bob & Fran Stoner (597-0189)

Second service attendees – just a reminder that your offering today will not post until Jan 1st

Be sure to check your mailbox. Christmas cards, greeter schedules and lots of other goodies are in there. It really helps to have it cleaned out as we start a new year. If you have a friend or family member that hasn't been here, it would be a great service if you could check their box and deliver to them as well.

Glow in the Dark Mini Golf

Sat. Jan. 14 12-7pm

Into his beautiful world God placed beautiful people. Pristine scenery, rewarding work, and sweet fellowship. But when the rebellion happened that picture perfect scene was broken. Like a framed print that fell off the wall.

Shattered glass.

Bent frame.

Torn picture.

This is our world... and life.

The new year stretches in front of us like a blank canvas. Yet we know there will be troubles and trials because we live in a broken world. Can the painting be restored? Can we live with broken hearts? Out of brokenness and strife, can something beautiful really be made of my life? Our Sunday sermons during January will address God's hope and power for the broken places and pieces of life.

New Sermon Series
