US National Conference

Lancaster, PA • July 12-15, 2017

The United Brethren Church is 250 years old, originating in 1767. Our national conference this year will be in Lancaster, PA where the U.B. work originated. The group will meet this week, Thursday – Saturday. Our delegates are Joel Leckron and David Mercer.

*Thursday afternoon there will be tours to the original barn (yep!) and other historical U.B. sites. A group from OUB will travel over in the van to take in the tour. If you would like to join them, contact Guy Fritz at 597-8490 or 372-8692 (cell).

Save the Dates!

July 24 – Music & Worship Commission Meeting
July 28 – Men’s Day OFF... fellowship and food
Aug. 6 – OUB DAY AWAY... service/lunch at Rhodes Grove

Craft Closet in the Basement

The supplies have been temporarily moved to the Toddler Nursery while the closet is being worked on.

CARNIVAL CLEANUP
July 10 - 15

Each year we are asked to do the clean-up at the Fireman’s Carnival. In return, they give us a donation towards missions. The clean-up takes only around 30-45 minutes each evening starting at 10:00 PM. The more who sign-up the quicker we get done. Also, we will need a truck each evening to haul trash. Sign-up sheet located on desk in lower lobby.

July 15, 9 am – 2 pm

CAR WASH – Fundraiser for Common Ground Haiti Trip
at Greencastle Hardees

Common Ground Youth Group will be traveling to Haiti Aug. 5-12 with Global Partners. They are collecting donations to take with them. See the insert for specific items needed. Any questions, contact Josh Lance or Shirl Clark (717-377-5810).
