

The Conviction and Culture of CARE

Jeremiah's complaint

People mock God with their lives
even while they acknowledge God with their lips.

God's REPLY

Grow up! You preach ... I will punish.

Prepare for the worst!

Parched fields will not even matter soon, because there will be no people to work them.

Weep!

Everyone will be impacted as I withdraw my blessing.

Consider!

This disaster has not been averted
because no one CARES.

God wanted Jeremiah to keep hoping and preaching and CARING even while he was discouraged.

IF I CARE, I will never become so frustrated, angry, or discouraged that I no longer
try.

A significant amount of dust is being kicked up by their hooves, creating a hazy, yellowish atmosphere. The focus is on the horses in the middle ground, while the background is blurred.

AWARE

We have a critical message.

PREPARE You will make little impact until you have a heart of love.

SHARE Along with love and information about God, we must give people an invitation to Christ
