On a dark mountain top a lone figure is handed a flat rock with only a few words written on it. Carved into it, actually. Ten rules. And the wisdom and power of those rules make families work, make life sweet, make civilizations prosper. This simple list of rules has more to say than all the E stuff combined! So ... invite a friend to pull the phone off (or out of) their ear and join us on Sunday mornings to hear the rules. April 8 – June 10 TEN WORDS

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS... Let's talk about HEAVEN!

It's where we all want to go... but where is it? What will it be like? Will we really know each other? Will we have arms and legs and faces? What will we actually do? What does the Bible actually tell us about the life that we anticipate on the other side?

Starting this Wednesday... 6:30 p.m. (sanctuary overflow)

Bible study by Pastor David

PRIORITY

(Exodus 20:2-3)

Word #1_____

PRIORITY ... I allow _____ else to come before God.
I allow nothing else to have his place in my heart.

i.e.

I seek to please God in my _____ and _____

I rely on God for my life's _____ and _____.

I give to God the greatest _____ and _____ of my heart.

A REPEATED REMINDER

Adam ... fall and curse; a [bad] decision about God's priority (Gen 3)

Moses ... called for a show of loyalty, a line in the sand (Ex. 32:26)

Joshua ... demanded that a choice be made for one God (Josh. 24:14-15)

Elijah... pointed out that only one God could be followed (I Kings 18:21)

Isaiah ...REALITY CHECK; There is no other Savior available

(Is. 43:10-12)

Jeremiah ... the choice of lordship is like a "crossroads" (Jer. 6:16)

Jesus ... every individual is for me or against me (Matt. 12:30)

Paul ... the requirement of Christ is "preeminence" (Col. 1:8)

JEALOUS JEHOVAH

vs. 2 = "Do not _____ that _____!"

(I have proven my love for you.)

vs. 3 = "Do not _____ my _____!"

(You must prove your love for me.)
