INTEGRITY

(Exodus 20:15)

(Word #8)

1. Possessions are _____ to give, not _____ to steal (Acts 17:25). (Theft is an affront to God who gave that property to that person. The wealth or resources of a victim are no excuse or reason for theft.)
2. Both _____ and _____ theft is wrong (Col. 3:22-25) (Theft can be “taking” or “refusing to give”.)
3. _____ > _____ > _____ > _____ (Eph. 4:28) (This is God’s design and intention for humanity.)

At that time, I was saved from being a thief by finding everything locked up!
But now, I am saved from being a thief because Christ has changed by heart.

E. W. Howe

SECURITY

(Exodus 20:17)

(Word #10)

*This final commandment anticipates the NT teaching of Jesus ... that sin really lies in the heart and not in the hands, in attitude more than action, in desire more than deed.

1. Abundant _____ does not equal abundant _____ (Luke 12:15).
2. Desire for possessions _____ our desire for God (Matt. 6:24, Col. 3:5)
3. The _____ we have, the _____ we are consumed by worldly responsibilities (Luke 12:16-34).

_____ child can rest securely in what _____ has given them for that moment (Phil.

There is not enough money printed to guarantee security. Security and peace concerning the future only comes from trusting God. He can give me contentment and happiness with the goods and resources he has given me.
