If you have not been baptized and would like to take that step of public commitment to Christ, opportunity will be given on Sunday, July 29 during the morning worship service. This will be a COMBINED SERVICE Sunday which will begin at 9:00. Baptism is a symbol of God's life changing work in your heart and your own response of surrender to him. It symbolizes dying to self and rising to God's life. It may mark a recommitment of your heart unto the Lord. Please speak with Pastor David if you are interested in being baptized.

NO WAY!

Because there is RIGHT and WRONG, our lives are filled with moral choices. Jesus described two destinies that lie at the end of either a broad road with a wide gate or a narrow road with a small gate (Matthew 7:13-14). If you do not like to make decisions... tough! Decisions are inescapable. Quite often the wisdom or foolishness of your choice boils down to the simplicity of YES or NO. And because our world and our human nature is fallen, it seems that our default position is YES. So living for God often means that we must summon the courage to say, "No." Long term reward often means NO to short term pleasure. And saying NO is not just about refusing bad things, but often about refusing something good in order to have something better!

NO. This is not _____ Issue = pleasing God

NO. This is not _____ Issue = discipline, responsibility, accountability

NO. This does not _____ Issue = comfort, compatibility, lifestyle

NO. Although this is _____, I want something _____. Issue = purpose

Spiritually.... temptation is enticing. Socially... cultural trends seem exciting, and peer pressure seems overwhelming. However, God's Spirit

_____ and _____ self-control (Galatians 5:22).

Another term for this is _____... to say NO (Acts 4:13, 16-20)

WHAT IF?

- Adam and Eve had said, "NO WAY!" to the serpent?
- Jesus had said, "NO WAY!" to the ignominy of the cross?
