Our prayers and sympathy go out to the families of Barb Anderson, John Buchanan and Vince Bitner who have now crossed over into their eternal life. Each of these three individuals endured significant disabilities of their body, yet their spirit remained strong and their hope and delight was in the Lord. We are seeking temporary housing for a lady who currently lives in England and attends the church pastored by Peter Bellingham. She will be moving to Greencastle and would be grateful to have a place available until she can find something for herself. She anticipates moving in late October. If you have a room and would consider this as a possibility, Pastor Rawley can give you more details. She is twenty nine years of age.
