HOLY SPIRIT

A white dove is shown in flight, its wings spread wide, against a bright blue sky filled with soft, white clouds. The dove is positioned in the center of the frame, moving from the bottom towards the top.

The Holy Spirit came as God's presence after Jesus left.

God's kingdom/people/purpose...
everywhere simultaneously

As the disciples had traveled and lived with Jesus, he had always been available to them.

This is (part of) the emphasis of the unique word Jesus used... paraclete.

para = along side of (English > parallel)

kaleo = to call (English > call)

The Holy Spirit is called along side of us by our trials, fears, and needs. His response is triggered by our helplessness, our need to know, our danger, our ignorance, our weakness, etc.

- a) advocate (standing with us as comforter, companion, friend)
(John 14:18)
- b) guide (showing us how to live) 16:13
- c) teacher (making us wise) 14:26, 15:26
- d) prompter (convicting/convincing.. truth and error) 16:8-10
- e) delegator (giving us the influence that Jesus had) 16:15

A new promise... the Holy Spirit is not simply with us, but is in us... not simply for a day or a job, but for our entire life.

He seals our hearts... He keeps us by his power until our full salvation is realized.

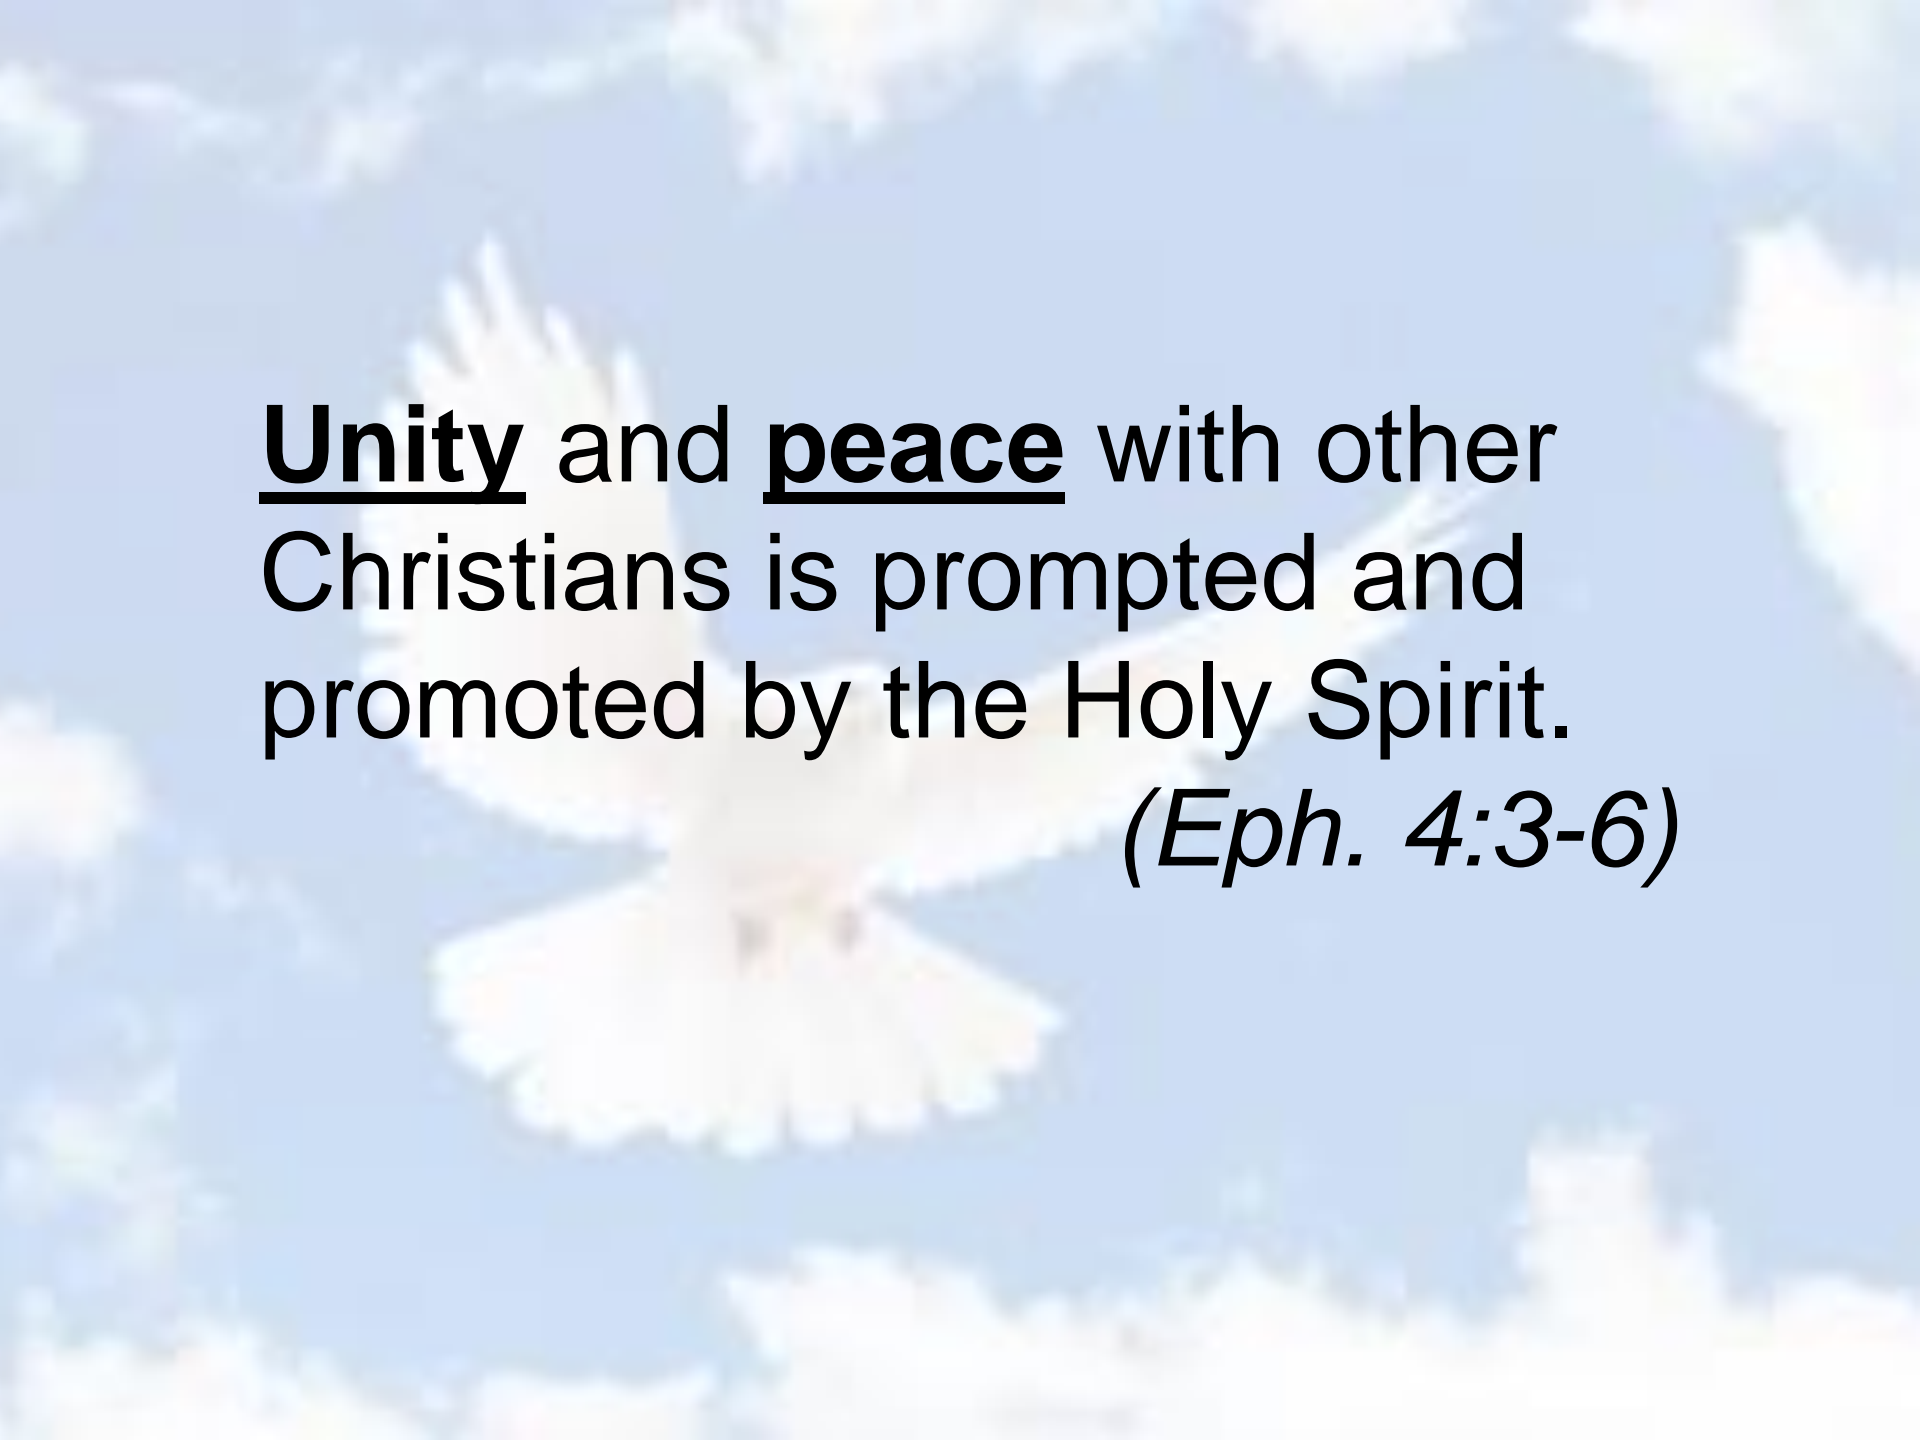

A white dove with its wings spread, flying against a blue sky with white clouds. The dove is the central focus of the image, symbolizing peace and the Holy Spirit.

When I ask/trust Christ to save me, I receive the Spirit.

(1 Cor. 12:13)

A white dove is shown in flight, its wings fully extended, against a bright blue sky filled with soft, white clouds. The dove is positioned in the center-left of the frame, facing right. The overall scene is peaceful and symbolic.

The Spirit give me power.
(Acts 1:8)

Unity and peace with other Christians is prompted and promoted by the Holy Spirit.

(Eph. 4:3-6)
