To our lives comes sadness. Hard times. Tears. And to our lives comes gladness. Happy moments. Happy places. In both extremes, it is our relationship with GOD that sustains and blesses us! "In your presence is the fullness of joy" (Psalm 16:11). We celebrate and strengthen that relationship today! So glad you are here.

From time to time we go back to our fundamental existence and remember our purpose as a church. What is our foundation? Our reason? Our goal? What motivates us to "do" church or to "be" a church? What image immediately comes to mind when someone says "Otterbein UB Church? Many years ago our Administrative Board chose a phrase to express our purpose. We will be a CHURCH THAT C.A.R.E.S. During February the Sunday sermons will visit that phrase to remind us that we have an exciting purpose! We are a group that cares because we are a church that C.A.R.E.S.

AFFIRMING

LIFE? _____ • _____
• Life _____ life _____.

People encounter a vast variety of experiences, emotions, ideas, and beliefs. They cycle through triumph and tragedy, favor and rejection, hope and despair. Throughout this odyssey, our (Christian) goal is to remain hopeful and helpful, and continually encourage movement toward God. In doing this we are _____ their intrinsic _____ and expressing _____ in God's love and purpose for them.

Jeremiah 16:10-15

Even when we do not enjoy, appreciate or understand a sinful lifestyle, and even when we rebuke or warn someone of such, we must never _____ the _____ of their soul or refuse to _____ their _____.

Jeremiah 18:1-6

Even within the potter's hands, the vessel can still be damaged. (This speaks to the fragility of the clay.) Yet so great is God's perception and power, that he can _____ that life, bringing goodness and greatness _____ Part of our purpose is to _____ people as they _____ this painful process on the Potter's Wheel of Life. We will not be put off by pain, turned off by tears, or deterred by awkwardness. We will encourage and affirm in love!

Straight Street (Acts 9:17)

A sign of affirming love which flowed so freely and powerfully in the early church was the use of "brother" and "sister." Ananias and Saul had _____ when Saul gave his heart to Christ. Yet Ananias immediately reached out to _____ him... "Brother Saul, be healed... be filled... be baptized."
