(6:00-8:00) Membership is a way to publically say, "I belong here." Please speak with Pastor Rawley if you wish to participate.

JUNE 2...our annual DAY AWAY!

a) Combined WORSHIP service at Otterbein (9:30)

b) Baptisms and picnic supper at Rhodes Grove (3:00 - 5:00)

* Baptism is a public expression of Christ's work in our life. It is a spiritual "washing" that also symbolizes "death" of the old man and resurrection to a new life (I Peter 3:21, Romans 6:3-4, Acts 2:38-39). Baptism can be appropriate at any age or stage of life. It is the answer of our heart to God's call that matters. If you would like to be baptized, please speak with Pastor David.

REMEMBER – You can drop off aluminum cans in the garage to be recycled for Common Ground Youth. Many thanks as well to David & Linda Dombrowsky for helping with this project!

WMF is in need of the ice cream buckets with lids to store the cookies they bake for Bible School. If you have any, please mark them and drop them off in the kitchen.
