YOU HAVE NEVER BEEN THIS WAY BEFORE

(JOSHUA 3)

The future is always unknown. Yet when we are in familiar territory, it seems less intimidating. Doable. But when the terrain is unfamiliar and the landmarks no longer recognizable, the future becomes disconcerting. Bewildering. Fearful.

As the Israelites crossed the Jordan River into the land of Canaan, the Lord understood their misgivings. This was a new world to all of them. It was a change of _____, _____, _____. One thing, however, had not changed. The Lord whom they trusted and worshipped would still love and lead them. They must follow.

Obvious _____ ... morals, lifestyle, worldview. i.e.
TEACHINGS/BIBLE

Subtle _____ ... decisions, career, relationships i.e.
CIRCUMSTANCES/SPIRIT

FOLLOW

- _____ “When you see ... move!” (3:3)
- _____ “keep a distance” (3:4)

GET RID OF

- _____ “consecrate” (3:5)
- _____ “tomorrow the Lord will do amazing things” (3:5)

IGNORE

- _____ “Go and stand in the river” (3:8)
- _____ “the water piled up in a heap” (3:16)

When changes are thrust upon us (virus!) we feel confused, angry, disgusted or frightened that the familiar has been changed. We knew how to navigate in the old, familiar world. However, we can navigate well in unfamiliar territory as long as we have a reliable guide. Which we do!
