The concept of “good” is so central to human life that it divides and defines all reality!

- There will never be a universally accepted definition of “good” because human opinion, tastes, and goals vary widely. Thus, all hatred, war, and exploitation.
- We must accept the standard of an outside (higher, authoritative) source.

_____ (Mt. 19:17, Mk. 10:18)

† God's will _____ good (sovereignty)

† God's character _____ good (example)

† God's instruction _____ good (authority)

† God's presence _____ good (power)

G _____
O _____
O _____
D _____

We should want to “do good.” Yet, it is not our “wanting” to do something that makes it good! In fact, some deeds considered “good” (by ourselves and others) will not meet God’s standard of goodness and will be destroyed in the end

(1 Cor. 3:12-15). WHY? Because, in God’s view, “good” is defined by _____ rather than human effort, expense, achievement, or praise. Deeds done to promote, exalt, or benefit _____ are not “good” in God’s eyes, even though much human good may have resulted from them.

Mt. 23 Good deeds > self-promotion/reputation (vs. 5, 25)

“Woe to you!”

Mt. 25 Good deeds > no thought of reward (vs. 31-40)

“Well done!”

*True goodness is unconscious of _____ or its _____. It is the outflow of the inner nature, the overflow of a heart of love (Mt. 7:17)

Titus 2:14 – “Be eager to do what is good”

Titus 3:14 – “Be devoted to doing good deeds”

A Christian should move beyond simply being _____ to do good, and actually seek to _____ good!

THINK LIKE THIS: kind, thoughtful, considerate, merciful, generous
DO THIS: help, encourage, educate, empower, advocate
PROMOTE THIS: peace, morality, responsibility, honesty, discipline
FIGHT THIS: oppression, immorality, wickedness, injustice, cruelty
