A ROOM and A RULE

(Hebrews 9)

[place] ... the _____ of God
*just one God/place ... not “many”

[procedure] ... the _____ of God
*individual > animal > priest > blood > GOD vs. 8-10 Even when the room and rules were used properly, the separation/awkwardness/fear remained. THE CURTAIN STILL HUNG THERE, a symbolic barrier. Sins were not actually forgiven and consciences were not actually cleansed. These formalities simply bought time ... a _____.

When Christ came ... (vs. 11-14)

√ a _____ tabernacle √ his _____ blood √ obtained _____
forgiveness √ our conscience _____ √ we may _____ God (grace and gratitude)

(vs. 23) LOGIC. Justice _____ some combination of acknowledgement/apology and payment/penalty.

As humans we can choose to forgive others (without retribution) because God has forgiven us (Eph. 4:32). We do not have to satisfy a perfect sense of justice (Rom. 12:19). God does not have that option. Perfect in both love and justice, he cannot tilt toward _____ or _____ (Ex. 34:6-7). His character is not “either – or” but “both”. Therefore ... he offers _____ and requires _____.

vs. 27-28

Though this statement categorically refutes the Hindu concept of “reincarnation”, that is not its intention in this context. It uses human “one time” death as an analogy for the “one time” sacrifice of Jesus. Because he was without sin, God's perfect Lamb, _____ was _____.

a) covered and cleansed by Christ's blood, we do not fear the _____ following _____

b) When Christ returns, it will be for a different purpose ... not to _____ but to _____ salvation. For that we "wait"!
