I think that I shall never see a church that's all it ought to be
A church whose members never stray beyond the straight and narrow way
A church that has no empty pews, whose pastor never has the blues
A church whose deacons always seek, and none is proud, and all are meek
Such perfect churches there may be, but none of them are known to me
But still, I'll work and pray and plan to make this church the best I can.

I'D RATHER NOT!

Moses - "not good at that sort of thing"

*When we base our obedience on our own _____ or _____, we deny God's opportunity to display His glory and power. This glory and power is displayed when He accomplishes His will even _____ limited and fallen followers like us.

Jonah - "don't even like those folks"

*When we base our obedience on the _____ / _____ of someone else, we are withholding God's _____ and contesting God's _____ and denying the basis of our own forgiveness.

Peter - "already tried that"

*When we base our obedience on _____, we are essentially awaiting ensured _____ and not embracing risk. When we do this, we miss opportunities that can make our faith _____. We also miss out on crucial times of _____ to determine if our past failures are the result of running ahead of God.

Ezekiel - "don't like to give folks bad news"

*When we base our obedience on whether we think someone will respond _____, we withhold _____ and undermine God's work of using truth to set people free.

"rich man" - "can't afford so much sacrifice"

*When we base our obedience on whether we feel we can afford the _____, we are denying God _____ to every part of our life. We are also not _____ that God will provide us with whatever we need to do what He asks.

Pharaoh - "I'll do some of it"

*When we base our obedience on what it _____, we are saying to God, "I respect you but I do not _____ you." God is not impressed.

There are reasons why God asks us to do things which we consider objectionable.

-To demonstrate His _____

-To _____ our faith and the faith of those observing

- We are the _____ and _____ of His will and His Kingdom

We should not object to God's call. But I'm good, because God hasn't called me.

God _____ called you, God _____ call you, and God _____ call you again!

-by giving you _____ and _____

-by giving you _____ and _____ and empathy

-by placing _____ and hardships and _____ in front of you
