Jesus said that his disciples were to GO and TEACH all men. This is why we believe in missions and love missionaries. One of the couples we support, Roger and Marilyn Reeck have announced that they will soon retire from their active ministry in Honduras. They have served with Wycliffe for 50 years! Keep them in your prayers as they make transitions.

If you have ever owned a sheep or been accused of being a shepherd, you are quite rare. Chances are that you have not hung around sheep to a great degree. No problem. That just means that there is much to learn about sheep and shepherds; therefore, you will enjoy the study/sermons upcoming based on the most familiar Psalm (23) and the most unfamiliar symbol (sheep)!

THE SHEPHERD (Provision)

Psalm 23

“The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.”

Regarding my most consequential, far reaching, significant need,

“I am _____.”

* The most important, urgent realm of life is _____.

(Mt. 10:28, 16:26)

*I need to be _____ to _____ (no preparation possible afterward!)

*Even if all physical/material needs are perpetually met, this need _____.

Along with physical/spiritual, there are other needs we feel rather strongly about!

- _____ - recognition, appreciation, love
- _____ - significance, contribution, service
- _____ - forgiveness, surrender, acceptance

*If you will allow the Lord to be your shepherd, he will MEET YOUR NEEDS.

He will _____ the emptiness and _____ the restlessness and _____ the paralysis. So, you must seek him, trust him, talk to him, and work with him. (Is. 58:10-11, Phil. 4:19, 11 Peter 1:3)

THE SHEPHERD

† _____... food/shelter/medicine

† _____... predators/weather/injuries

* The shepherd's entire _____, _____, and _____ is the _____ of its animal. Towards this end the shepherd

_____, _____, _____.

This analogy (sheep/caretaker) is a colorful and comforting description of God's role _____ my life. This analogy also implies my need to _____ and _____ God as the one who will meet all my needs! (Gen. 48:15, Jer. 31:10, Is 40:9-11, Mt. 26:31, Jn. 10:11, 14, Heb. 13:20, 1 Peter 5:4)
