In a Old Testament vision of "the new heavens and new earth" (Isaiah 65), the prophet pictures a world (place) of pure bliss, harmony, and perfection. God call Jerusalem "my holy mountain."

In a very similar New Testament vision (Revelation 21), "the Holy city" is seen descending from the heavens to the earth. A voice says, "Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them!"

Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and [then] I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.

(John 17:24)

For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is your life, appears, than you will also appear with him in glory.

(Colossians 3:3)
