Closing Prayer

* We invite you to come and share an hour of worship and wonder this Friday evening at 6:00. NEW YEAR'S EVE CELEBRATION
This is an evening of music, testimony, and Holy Communion.

*Reminder, no Wednesday evening activities this week.

THANK YOU to each person who participated in our CHRISTMAS EVE program! Your helpfulness and creativity is so greatly appreciated!

THE JOURNEY These men made a decision to _____ the "King of the Jews." They wanted contact. They wanted knowledge that was real. Experience. So, they initiated the journey, doing whatever it took to _____ the child and _____ him. This is what we must do! Life is not a single moment, a snapshot, a flash of insight. Life is a journey toward a destination. CHOOSE YOUR DESTINATION WISELY because it DETERMINES THE DIRECTION OF YOUR JOURNEY!

THE GIFT These men brought amazing gifts, treasures of their Oriental world. Yet, as always, it was not the contents of the package or it's auction assessment that made the present into an actual gift. It was the careful thought of choosing and the lengthy rigor of bringing and the determined passion of presenting that gave value. Not the product or the price, but the principle! WHAT IS OUR GIFT? Surely the Lord rejoices when we offer possessions, time, or labor. Yet even these are products, tokens. The true gift? _____

All of us wish to express our appreciation for the Christmas gift from this congregation. We are so blessed to serve you, and we pray God's gift of health and happiness may be yours in this coming new Year!
