PROSPERITY and CHARITY

(JAMES 5:1-6)

The love of money brings out the worst in people.

* The danger is not in wealth, but in _____ wealth so that it
_____ love for God and other people. (1 Tim. 1:6-10)

Economic progress/prosperity are accompanied by hidden costs/dangers.

- _____
- _____
- _____

Wealth is described as God's "blessing" and "reward" (Prov. 10:22, 13:21). Yet it can also be the [earthly] reward of being "wicked" (Ps. 73:3, Prov. 11:16). God's concern is simple...

- How.... ?
- What... ?

CORRODED GOLD? (vs. 2-3)

Riches form a hedge against many difficulties. But these statements point out that _____ is _____ against _____ (Prov. 11:4, Eccl. 5:13, Ez. 7:19, Mt. 6:19-21). If justice is "blind," then it is indifferent about money or power. Our divine judge will never be intimidated or bribed or obligated. A wicked peasant and a wicked billionaire both face "misery that is coming upon you."

EXPLOITATION

It is part of God's grand design that our skills, time, and resources interact to be mutually beneficent to one another. Mutual employment, investment, enablement, etc. are righteous endeavors. The lure of wealth tempts us to exploit process and people so that we _____ without _____ or leverage an advantage in a way that _____ others _____. THIS INFURIATES GOD who abhors injustice, cheating, manipulation, and abuse of our fellow man. It violates his Law of Love, and he promises harsh retribution on those who swindle, scam, defraud, extort, or oppress others! (Lev. 19:13, Deut. 24:14-15, Ps 64:6-7, Jer. 17:9-11, 22:13, Lk 6:31, Col. 4:1.)

QUESTIONS

- Is my lifestyle one of "luxury and self-indulgence"? (vs. 5)
- Does my "saving" amount to "hoarding"? (vs. 3)
- What can I give to advance God's Kingdom?
- How can I be generous or share my resources with the needy?
- How can I be sensitive to [notice] needs?
