Bible Message

"Spirit of the Living God" (247)

Benediction

Under three things
the earth trembles.
A servant ...
A fool ...
An unloved woman
who is married.
(Proverbs 30:23)

How would you feel if someone who loved you never wanted to spend time with you? You would wonder ... or even worry. You wouldn't take it as a complement! What does God think of the many folks who say that they love him yet are uninterested or unwilling to spend time in his presence to worship and commune with him? We do not want to be such a person, which is WHY we are here today, to give time to God. We welcome you to worship!

OUB in worship

- 8:30 and 10:45
- 6:00 – an evening of outdoor music at Kauffman Ruritan building. Bring a lawn chair and bring some campfire food.

OUB in learning

- 9:50 – Sunday School classes for all ages
- 6:30 (Wednesday) – Bible Study groups for children, youth, and adults

Adult Choir practice begins this Wednesday evening (7:40). If you enjoy singing, you should participate in the choir so that others can enjoy your singing and so that God who put music within you can rejoice over his work! Teens are welcome to sing with the old folks!

 NEXT SUNDAY'S SERMON regarding marriage = TRUSTING ******

PEW PADS are located near the center aisle of each row of seats. Please sign and send, then pass them back to the center aisle. Any updated information is greatly appreciated.

Franklin County LIFE CHAIN,

On Oct 2, a prayerful, peaceful gathering to support life will be held in Waynesboro, PA on the square from 2-3 pm. Please arrive by 1:50 to receive your sign. You are welcome to bring a lawn chain. Parking will be free. Questions? contact Marcia Moyer at mmoyer1980@gmail.com. or 717-360-6740.

It's Tea Time.

Ladies, make plans to join us Sat., Oct. 1, 11:00 am at Greencastle Church of the Brethren for a "High Tea". This will be a special time for ladies ages 13 and up. Special speaker will be Dana Snider who will encourage us to find "Beauty in Brokenness". You will be blessed and enjoy a wonderful menu! Cost is by donation. Sign up is on both entry way tables.

GIVING

My needs aren't being met! They never do anything for me! They interfere with my goals or disagree with my views! Every marriage counselor has heard these self-centered gripes. The solution? Marriage thrives when the goal is to "give" rather than to "get".

Scripture = MALACHI 1:6-14

God is angry enough to quit. "Shut the temple doors!" (10)

People view required giving as unnecessary. "What a burden!" (12)

*To appease God, gifts were given. But they were pathetic in quality and given grudgingly. "You bring injured, crippled, or diseased sacrifices!" (13)

GIVE _____. Work, hobbies, friends, Facebook, opportunities and emergencies demand time. So we must _____ and _____ relationship time. Together time for talk, worship, planning, playing, etc. expresses the _____ of your _____.

GIVE _____. Living with someone is not equivalent to being _____ of their needs, dreams, or distress. Observe. Question. Notice. Care. They are not simply your _____, they are an _____, a human brother or sister. "Consider" them. (I Peter 3:7, I Tim. 5:1-2)

GIVE _____. This does not mean to overlook something for the moment, but to delete it from your agenda and vocabulary. It is not setting it aside or filing it under "LATER". To forgive is to _____ (Matt. 6:12, 14). This gift of _____ on your part (Eph. 4:32) enables the relationship to flourish rather than die.

GIVE THE _____ of your talent, energy, creativity, and enthusiasm. Give _____ than necessary. Give _____ quality than you give to anyone else. Give your _____. If you give less than this, you are "cheating" on your commitment (Malachi 1:14).
