THE BEAT OF A HIGHER DRUM

Why do the products and trends consumed and enjoyed by mass society continually change? Fashion. Food. Music. Politics. Social Platforms. Etc. Sometimes this is because a new technology creates a new possibility. But often the change is simply the emergence of a “fad.”

FAD – swell, surge acclaim, favor brief, temporary

1. We are hugely enamored with being _____ or _____ . “What will _____ ?”
2. If I present myself as being _____ to someone, I will be accepted (and vice versa)

3. The business of advertising is aimed more toward _____ than _____.

*Shaping the message that this product is popular!

*If you purchase/subscribe, you will be doing what everyone else is doing!

APPEAL: a) personal _____ b) peer _____
c) social _____

Jesus was not carried along by social pressure or bound by social constraints. His life was motivated/directed by a _____. He was connected to God and unplugged from this world. He did not drift on social currents, but marched to the beat of God's drum... ONLY. Therefore, the _____ of Palm Sunday did not inflate his ego, and the _____ of Good Friday did not deter his journey.

The fluctuations of humankind, public opinion, and cultural sentiment did not rock his boat! Jn. 5:19, 5:30, 6:63, 8:28, 14:24, 18:36

ISSUE From what do you receive your cues for living? What do you allow to influence you? How do you rank righteousness, convenience, and popularity? Is it more important for you to glorify God or fit in with a group?

WHOSE MUSIC DO YOU MARCH TO?

John 15:19, James 1:9-10, James 4:4, Isaiah 8:11-13
