Anyone born of God does not continue in sin.
The Son of God
saves them.
The evil one cannot harm them.

* Children's Church – 9:00/11:10

Folks who attend church make up an ever-decreasing percentage of our country's population. Most folks are not where you are today, gathering with the BODY OF CHRIST to recognize, honor, worship, and learn from the Lord. The world is under the control of the Evil One (1 John 5:19). Not you! So glad you are here today.

Between Worship services we have classes called Sunday School. A Scripture passage or theme is looked at in greater detail... discussion for adults, activities for children. Classes for all ages... 9:50 - 10:30. We encourage you to put this in your schedule and participate. A chance to learn and listen and get to know other people who are living life alongside of you. Sunday School is awesome!

WEDNESDAY – 6:30 – groups for children, youth, and adults.

MONDAY – 7:00 p.m. Music & Worship Commission Meeting

THURSDAY – 7:00 p.m. – Spiritual Care Commission

Wilbur Haugh has been at Mennohaven Rehab for a month as they work to regain mobility and strength. A card/note of encouragement may be a very great blessing to his day! Box 21, Waynesboro, PA. 17268

Each weekday a one minute inspirational /spiritual message is presented by OUB on the local radio station, WRGG (9:25 and 5:25). Pray that God will use these short messages to capture hearts and change lives!

The altar flowers are in honor of Lisa and Wayne Dopp's Anniversary!

GOOD NEWS CAMP, a day camp for youngsters in Waynesboro will be operating again this summer. Transportation and funding for one week of camp are both available for OUB children. This is a cool week of fun and learning, and many OUB kids have participated through the years. Brochures are available at the lower entrance. Regarding funding, contact Cindy Rawley (717) 597-3211.

*Also $200/week of summer camp for local Christian camps is available for OUB children/teens to defray the cost. Works like this... when you register for camp, inform them of the OUB connection, and they will take the $200 off the cost of your registration.

A Savior

NOAH
Sailor and Savior

Both Noah and Jesus marked a new epoch, a new beginning in human history, the _____ restart of creation (Noah) symbolizing the _____ restart of life (Christ).

Start over! • (Genesis 1:28, 9:1)

- (Mt. 9:17, Lk. 22:20, Jn. 3:3-7, Acts 5:20, 11 Cor. 5:7, Gal. 6:15, Eph. 4:24, Heb. 10-20, 1 Pet. 1:3)

EXISTENTIAL THREAT

_____ capable of unleashing catastrophe (from below and above)
(Gen. 6:11-13, 7:11)

- * No scheme, technology or project could prevent this... humanly overwhelming!
- * Noah felt a "holy fear" (Heb. 11:7)

_____ capable of every conceivable atrocity and terror

- * No medicine, treaty, or jail can prevent this... humanly impossible!
- * We live in vigilance and fear

_____ / _____ capable of destroying us utterly and permanently

- * No intelligence, achievement, or bargaining can prevent this... beyond human control!
- * We should fear this more than all else (Mt. 10:28)

BEING SAVED

For _____ to escape the coming cataclysmic flood, they would have _____ to enter Noah's ark with him. No other option. Apparently, such an invitation was given (1 Pet. 2:5), but completely ignored (Mt. 24:39). Only Noah's family was saved.

For _____ to escape the terror of hell, they _____ enter into the protecting sanctuary of Christ. No alternative. (Jn. 10:9-10, 28-30, 14:6, 17:1-2). This happens when we _____ and _____ this invitation from Christ. (Jn. 1:10-12, 3:16-21, 17:8, 20, Acts 10:43, Col. 2:6)

Noah was more than a sailor. For the human race, he literally was a savior. In this, he was a type, a forerunner, a sign, a profound picture of Jesus Christ. In both instances, one man's righteousness made possible salvation and future life for everyone!
