Children's Church
(9:00 and 11:10)

TODAY Worship (8:30/10:45) Sunday School (9:50)

WEDNESDAY Closing program for the Children's classes. We invite you to come and share in their achievements. Fellowship and ice cream will follow the program.

FRIDAY - SATURDAY: Yard sale in the church gym (7:00 - 1:00)
All proceeds benefit COMMON GROUND ministry trip to Mexico.

SATURDAY Ralph's Recipe BBQ at Glenwood Foods. Chicken halves and baked goods available from 9:00 to noon.
Proceeds benefit OUB Women's Missions Fellowship.

Summer CAMPS for youth are a great benefit and blessing!

- OUB will pay $200 towards the cost of your child attending a local Christian camp for one week. When you register your child, let the camp know that OUB is sponsoring. The camp will bill the church directly.
- A generous offer to cover the cost of GOOD News Camp (Waynesboro) for any OUB child. This is a DAY camp. Bus transportation is available. See the BROCHURE on the downstairs entryway table. Speak to Cindy Rawley.

Next week (Friday - Sunday, June 7 - 9/6:00 to 8:00)
We ask for your kids. And grandkids. And neighbor's kids. We're going to be baking bread and explaining the BREAD FROM HEAVEN. We appreciate you help with bringing the kids!

A SPECIAL NIGHT. We are privileged to host an evening with Duncan Holmes, a concert pianist from Fredericksburg, Texas. Wednesday evening, June 5, 6:30 in the OUB sanctuary. His repertoire, talent, and testimony are quite amazing.

Duncan is a Christian performing artist who is blind from birth. He attended Maryland School for the Blind, Shenandoah Conservatory of Music, and University of North Texas concentrating on piano. He has performed across the U.S.A in a wide variety of churches, schools, prisons, etc. He has accompanied bands, operas, soloists, and has been featured on radio and television. You will be greatly blessed

LAMENTS OF LIFE

The conquest of Judah and destruction of Jerusalem (586 B.C.) was a terrible scene and a great slaughter. The survivors were shocked and stunned. The prophet Jeremiah took up his pen and composed a scathing response, a five-part poem. It is our Old Testament book of Lamentations. During JUNE our Sunday sermons will focus on these laments, noting principles for dealing with grief and frustration. LAMENTS OF LIFE

- June 2 - The Lament of SADNESS
(I'm pining for the "good old days!")
- June 9 - The Lament of SELF PITY
(I'm feeling sorry for myself!)
- June 16 - The Lament of SHAME
(I am so embarrassed!)
- June 23 - The Lament of SKEPTICISM
(Why doesn't religion work for me?)
- June 30 - RELIEF from GRIEF
(I am growing!)

PEOPLE

22:13 Some people say _____. Do not _____ them!

- Pessimism, lies, and ignorance are part of normal human communications. Ask God to make you _____ and _____ (14:15, 14:18).
- Research and "expertise" often end up far away from _____. Let the Bible be your filter through which all information passes. Accept or reject it on that basis (18:2).

12:10-19 Some people are _____. _____ from them!

- Consider their advice to be poison and their invitations as suicide. You may have to associate with them, but you do not have to _____ them. Give them NO _____ in your life (2:12-19, 13:20, 10:23).

13:8 Some people seem to _____. Do not _____ them!

- I may have _____ and _____ they do not have. But the opposite is true also (14:13)!
- Sinful people become "successful." I do not have to imitate them in order to have success. My "hope" lies in a _____ of success (23:17-18, 11:7).

4:10-13 Some people can _____ your life. _____ to them!

- The "sharpening" process can only happen because one iron is harder than the other. So those made hard and strong by difficulties are worth my _____ and _____ (27:17).

14:1 Some people add great _____ to this world.

- When I PARTICIPATE and PERPETUATE the good influence and righteous work of a godly person, I not only encourage _____ but I make a statement to _____ about what I believe to be good, right and worthwhile (12:28, 10:7).
